

Cultural Capital
Development Opportunities

Department: Media (KS4 only)

	Personal Development	Social Development	Physical Development	Spiritual Development	Moral Development	Cultural Development
KS3	N/A
KS4	Students are encouraged to develop a critical voice and enquiring mind so that they question and critique everything they see/read/hear. They are asked to consider media platforms that they may not have looked at before, i.e. Radio.	Much of the course features a study of social groups and exploration of society. Students are able to understand viewpoints of others. i.e. Rise of feminism Racism Effects of gaming Effects of social media Patriarchy	N/A	Students are given access to texts that they may not have considered before: these may develop their spiritual awareness.	Discussions of texts surrounding racism, feminism, power in society, etc. are the basis of this course. e.g. We discuss the nature of celebrities today, comparing Kim Kardashian to Marcus Rashford.	A diverse and inclusive range of texts are studied at GCSE Media to give students opportunities to study and discuss many different cultures and attitudes to race and gender. i.e. K-pop music band BlackPink and Marcus Rashford's use of social media.